

Mythcon 54

Get Your Fantasy Kicks
on Route 66!

Stafford Air
& Space Museum

Weatherford,
Oklahoma

July 24-27, 2026

As part of the 2026 Route 66 centennial events occurring across Oklahoma, the Mythopoeic Society is hosting Mythcon 54! The three-day conference will feature literary discussion and activities with the theme "Get Your Fantasy Kicks on Route 66." Register for the conference and join us for lively programs about fantasy literature including presentations on:

- Urban or epic fantasy about adventures on the road
- Fantasy literature from or inspired by Native American oral, written, or historic tradition
- The MythSoc archive in Weatherford, OK, which sits on Route 66, as well as the role of archives in fantasy literature
- Local tales of cryptids, the supernatural, or other horrors
- Tales taking place in Oklahoma, the Southwest, or Route 66, the Mother Road

We are interested in presentations about the subjects listed above, related topics, or explorations of fantasy in literature, movies, television, video games, and other media.

Program Venue: Stafford Air & Space Museum, 3000 Logan Rd. Weatherford, OK 73096.

Official Hotel: Lucille's Hotel, 3825 E Main St. Weatherford, OK, 73096; (580)-774-0400; conference rate $99.99 (+ taxes) per night, using the group code MYTHCON54.

Guests of Honor from Oklahoma!

Author Guest of Honor:

David R. Slayton

David R. Slayton grew up in Guthrie, Oklahoma. His debut, White Trash Warlock, received a starred review from Publishers Weekly.

Scholar Guest of Honor:

Joe Christopher

Dr. Joe R. Christopher, originally from Bartlesville, Oklahoma, is a retired professor of English from Tarleton State University in Stephenville, Texas.

Scan here for more conference information!

